

Questions about Cyber Bullying + Staying Safe Online from MomentsADay.com. For individual use only.

You see an opinion you do not agree with in a chatroom online. You respond sharing your thoughts in a respectful manner. What virtue are you practicing?	You always log out after using your email account. This keeps your correspondence and personal information safe. What virtue are you practicing?	The rule in your home is to tell your parents if you see something yucky or disturbing online. One day you see something and tell them immediately. What virtue are you practicing?
Your friend has been bullied online and asks you what they should do. You are not sure so you find the Kids Helpline number for them, so they can get advice. What virtue are you practicing?	When you use the computer to do research online for homework, you stick to using the websites your parents have approved for you to be on. What virtue are you practicing?	You never agree to meet a person that you meet online, even if they say they are a child and you are going to be in a public place. What virtue are you practicing?
You overhear that a classmate has been copying photos from someone else's device without their knowledge. You inform the teacher even though you are nervous they will find out it was you who told. What virtue are you practicing?	Someone says something mean about your hairstyle online. This is the first time it has happened. You talk with a grown-up and don't let their comment bother you. You like yourself and feel good about who you are. What virtue are you practicing?	When trying to create an account online, a website asks what age you are. You enter it truthfully even if that means you cannot create the account because you are too young. What virtue are you practicing?

Answer Key

Column 1: Respect, Helpfulness, Courage. Column 2: Responsibility, Trustworthiness, Confidence. Column 3: Obedience, Carefulness, Truthfulness.